

Implementing Truth and Reconciliation: Comparative Lessons for Korea

October 24, 2011 | 509 O'Brian Hall | 9:00am - 2:00pm

9:00am

Welcome and Introduction

Makau Mutua, Dean, University at Buffalo Law School
Errol Meidinger, Director, Baldy Center for Law & Social Policy

9:15 - 11:00

The Korean TRC Experience: Critical Reflections Toward the Future

Professor Dong-Choon Kim, Former Standing Commissioner, TRC Korea, Sungkonghoe University (Korea)
"Overview of the TRC Korea Recommendations and their Implementation"

Professor Hun Joon Kim, Griffith Asia Institute, Griffith University
"Information Effect: A Comparative Analysis of Truth Commissions' Impact in South Korea"

Professor Tae-Ung Baik, William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawai'i
"Procedural Fairness for Transitional Justice in South Korea"

Moderator: Professor Mark Nathan, University at Buffalo, Asian Studies

11:00 - 11:15

Coffee Break

11:15 - 1:00

Implementing Truth and Reconciliation: Lessons from Peru, Cambodia and South Africa

Professor Lisa Laplante, Praxis Institute for Social Justice & University of Connecticut Law School
"Negotiating Rights: Beneficiary and Civil Society Participation in Implementing Economic Reparations"

Professor John Ciorciari, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan
Professor Jaya Ramji-Nogales, Temple Law School
"Lessons Learned from the Cambodian Experience with Truth and Reconciliation"

Ereshnee Naidu, International Coalition of Sites of Conscience, Former Project Manager of Memory Work, Center for the Study of Violence and Reconciliation (South Africa),
"Memory and Reparation: The Lessons and Challenges of Truth and Reconciliation in South Africa"

Moderator: Professor Tara Melish, University at Buffalo Law School, Director of Human Rights Center

1:00 - 2:00

Lunch

2:00 - 5:30

Paper Workshop for Invited Participants